GIVES BATTLE TO THE POLICE

Prisoner Tries to Aid Fellow to Escape and Is Knocked Senseless

BERKELEY Aug. 9.—Charles Hallonquist, who was arrested on August 1 charged with battery preferred by his wife was again taken into custody last night on a similar charge. At the same time that he was being conducted to the county jail Chief Johnson who was arrested yesterday for insanity was being taken to Oakland by the same officer. Policeman Leonard Johnson cried that he was not a murderer and did not wish to be taken to the county jail. Hallonquist who was slightly under the influence of liquor came to Johnson's aid and the two men grappled with Officer Leonard and threw him to the floor of the police station.

Chief of Police Vollmer rushed out and floored Hallonquist with his first knocking him senseless. Meanwhile Leonard again got possession of Johnson. It was twenty minutes before Hallonquist was restored to consciousness. He was then taken to the County Jail in Oakland where a charge of battery was preferred against him and his bail raised from $300 the amount for which he was released on the first charge to $500.

MOTIVE FOR THE MURDER OF WHITE

NEW YORK Aug. 9.—The Herald today says:
New and important evidence pointing a plausible motive for the killing of Stanford White has lately come into District Attorney Jerome's possession. The inkling of the facts was conveyed to the district attorney indirectly from Florenz Ziegfeld, a theatrical manager who is the husband of Anna Held and who is at present living in Paris. The story is that Mr. White sent a note and a basket of flowers to Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw the afternoon of the shooting and the tragedy grew out of the thoughtless mischief of three chorus girls.

Mr. Ziegfeld met one of his New York theatrical friends in a railroad station in Paris a little while ago and the conversation drifted to the Thaw tragedy. Mr. Ziegfeld expressed surprise that the authorities had not yet got hold of evidence which would go a long time toward clearing up the mystery heretofore cloaking the motive of Thaw.

DOWN ON GAMBLING

BERKELEY Aug. 9.—Carl Sawell, the famous choir leader objects to the gambling done by the Chinese in the neighborhood of his home at 2121 Haste street. He says that he has stood the rattle of the gamblers long enough and will visit the local police station with the end in view of having the nuisance eliminated. He further says that he has plenty of evidence to warrant the arrest of the Orientals and if they are brought up before the courts he says he will make it warm for them. Professor Sawell claims that he knows the game of fan tan when he sees it and avers that the Celestials are nightly engaged in the game much to the annoyance of all the residents in the immediate vicinity of their hovels on Haste street and Shattuck avenue.

He explains his knowledge of the game by the fact that he not very long ago, had occasion to visit the gambling dens of San Francisco to get material for a Chinese opera that he was writing. To gather such material he had to have an intimate acquaintance with a number of Chinese gambling gamblers and he was forced to learn all the methods of the play used in pig-w, fan and the other games commonly played by the yellow men.

WEARY OF LIFE, TURNED ON GAS

KELLS HERSEY. BERT HERSEY.

Wife of Alameda Man Is Dying--Leaves a Pathetic Letter for Her Husband.

ALAMEDA, AUG. 9.—KELLS, ONE OF THE CHILDREN, DIED AT NOON TODAY FROM THE EFFECTS OF THE DEADLY GAS HE INHALED LAST NIGHT. THE OTHER BOY IS NOT EXPECTED TO LIVE AND DR. RILEY STATES THAT THE MOTHER CANNOT LAST UNTIL FIVE O'CLOCK.

THE FOLLOWING IS A COPY OF THE LETTER MRS. HERSEY LEFT ON THE DINING-ROOM TABLE BEFORE TURNING ON THE GAS. HER HUSBAND AT FIRST REFUSED TO MAKE KNOWN THE CONTENTS OF THE LETTER, BUT WHEN HE FOUND THAT HIS WIFE COULD NOT LIVE, HE ALLOWED A COPY TO BE MADE OF IT. IT IS WRITTEN WITH INDELIBLE PENCIL ON A PIECE OF TABLET PAPER. IT IS AS FOLLOWS:

"DEAREST WALTER:—GOOD BYE I HAVE RUINED YOUR LIFE AND IT IS NO USE I JUST CAN'T LIVE MY POOR BOYS, MY HEART ACHES FOR YOU ALL, BUT I CAN'T HELP IT I AM CRAZY, I THINK; I KNOW I WILL BE "HELEN."

BELIEVES IT ACCIDENT.

THE HUSBAND STATED THIS AFTERNOON THAT IN HIS BELIEF HIS WIFE HAD NOT INTENDED THAT HER CHILDREN'S LIVES SHOULD END WITH HERS. HE STATES THAT IN HIS OPINION SHE WENT INTO THE ROOM AND CLOSED THE DOOR, AND OPENED THE GAS JET. THE LITTLE BOYS, IN A SEARCH FOR THEIR MOTHER, MAY HAVE OPENED THE DOOR AND GONE INTO THE ROOM, WHERE THEY CREEPT INTO THEIR CRIB AT THE SIDE OF THE BED WHERE SHE LAY.

ALAMEDA Aug. 9.—After she had carefully undressed her young children, and saw that they were asleep in their little cribs, Mrs. Helen Hersey opened the two gas jets in the room at her residence, 2304 Buena Vista avenue, some time yesterday, and then laid down on a couch at the side of her children and waited for the deadly carbon monoxide fumes to bring death. Her efforts may yet be successful for despite the endeavors of three physicians, she is now in a precarious condition, and it is feared that the two boys will never recover from the effects of the gas. Yesterday morning her husband, W. D. Hersey, left her about 8 o'clock. That the children and mother are not yet dead is due to his unexpected arrival about 10 o'clock last night.

TURNED ON GAS.
Nothing was seen of the children after the house yesterday afternoon by any of the neighbors, and judging from the present condition of the three victims of the deadly gas, she must have turned it on some time yesterday afternoon. Hersey has stated to his neighbors since he has lived in the present location that his wife has been despondent ever since the fire. That the mother and children are not yet dead is due to the fact that she

WOMAN SAVES LIFE OF CHILD

A Fierce Contest, in Which Two People Are Most Severely Bitten.

Mrs. C. G. Lavarro, aged 24 years, residing at 1018 Brush street, this morning, at the risk of her own life, saved the life of twelve-year-old Manuel Gavano, a neighbor's child, who had been attacked by a ferocious bulldog that had its teeth fastened on the boy's throat. Mrs. Lavarro was seriously injured herself in effecting the rescue, as the dog turned upon her and sank his teeth in her arm. The boy had been teasing the dog, when the angered animal turned on him, grabbing him by the throat. The lad gave one loud scream when the dog jumped on him, which attracted Mrs. Lavarro to the scene.

The brute was holding the boy by the throat when the woman rushed upon him, kicking and beating him. The dog turned from the boy and grabbed Mrs. Lavarro by the right forearm, biting her severely. Others, attracted by the cries of both the woman and the boy, rushed to the scene, and the bulldog was finally mastered.

Mrs. Lavarro was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where her wounds were attended to. While they are painful, it is not expected that blood poisoning will set in.

The lad's throat was bandaged by his mother, who is, of course, much agitated by the occurrence.

NEW YORK CUTS OUT LATE DINNERS

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—After-theater suppers in the restaurants of the so-called "theater district" must end at one o'clock in the morning, or else be served without liquor, according to an order issued by Acting Police Commissioner Waldo, and which became effective yesterday.

When the late diners in several all-night restaurants in Sixth avenue and Upper Broadway had just about decided that they were very comfortable and noted that it was only one o'clock, each house of entertainment was entered by a policeman in civilian dress. His advent was not unexpected by the proprietor. Notification had been sent early in the afternoon that the policemen would be there promptly at the hour when the excise law says the sale of spirituous or fermented liquor must cease until five o'clock in the morning. The managers at once ordered the bars closed, and those who did not wish to eat took their departure.

TELLS SON TO MURDER

FREDERICK, Md., Aug. 8.—At the command of his father, Fred Debold, seventeen years old, son of John Debold, shot and killed George Smith, son of their neighbor, Edward O. Smith, near here last evening. There had been bad feeling between the two families and yesterday they quarreled over blackberries that the Smiths had picked on Debold's land. "Shoot him," said Debold to his son, pointing at the younger Smith. The boy fired a load from a shotgun which struck Smith over the heart, killing him instantly. Both Debolds were arrested.

KILLS BOY AND SELF

MAGNIFICENT RECEPTION TO JOSEPH R. KNOWLAND

Unitarian Club of Alameda Holds First Meeting After Vacation and Hears Address.

The first meeting of the Unitarian Club of Alameda, following the usual summer vacation, was held last night in the Unitarian Club rooms on Grand street, Alameda. President Frank Otis presided at the session.

Following the rendition of several musical numbers Congressman Joseph R. Knowland, who is a member of the club, spoke on important legislation of the first session of the Fifty-ninth Congress. He was given a magnificent reception by his friends and neighbors in his home town. It showed that his neighbors approve of his course in Congress.

At the conclusion of Mr. Knowland's address, light refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was devoted to social intercourse.

Congressman Knowland spoke as follows:

CONGRESSMAN'S ADDRESS.

When the first session of the Fifty-ninth Congress adjourned on the 20th of June, President Roosevelt, speaking of the work of the session, said, among other things: "It has done more substantial work for good than any Congress has done at any session since I became familiar with public affairs."

The legislation has been a long and arduous one, and it is fair to say that the enactment of any one of these laws would have made the session memorable.

IMPORTANT LEGISLATION.

Whether the work of the session is worthy of such an encomium from an authority as high as a question that perhaps time alone will determine. I am convinced, however, that when the people of the United States become familiar with what Congress accomplished during the recent session, that the most patriotic even those through whose minds all things long yellow, will admit that important and salutary legislation was enacted. Criticism will of necessity have to be confined to what Congress perhaps omitted to accomplish. Until the happy millennium comes, however, the legislation enacted by no law-making body in the whole world will meet the full approval of every individual for whose supposed benefit statutes are framed.

It is my purpose tonight to bring to the attention of the members of the Unitarian Club the legislation of the session which I deem to be of the greatest importance and the most far-reaching in its effects. I shall mention the names of the bills and the members of Congress who introduced them, and I shall endeavor to show the importance of each bill and the reasons for its passage.

MANY RESOLUTIONS.

In addition to these bills there were over 1000 Senate and House resolutions. A perusal of the Congressional Record shows that there were fully twenty million words spoken during the seven months of the session. Who can dispute that a member of Congress who introduces a bill or a resolution is a public man? In his case it is not a matter of private life, but a matter of public life. He is a public man, and he is a public man in the eyes of the people. He is a public man in the eyes of the people, and he is a public man in the eyes of the people.

Without question the most important legislative measure Congress has given the country in years is the much discussed, and the most far-reaching in its effects, the bill of the enactment of a law which will give political approval to the passage through both houses by practically a unanimous vote in the Senate and a large majority in the House of Representatives. This bill is a landmark in the history of the United States, and it is a landmark in the history of the United States.

SAYS HUSBAND THREW FURNITURE AT HER

Matilda Hallonquist has filed a suit for divorce against Charles Olo Hallonquist on the ground of cruelty. The couple were married in the city of St. Petersburg, Russia, October 10, 1888, and have six minor children. The plaintiff asks that the community property be set aside and that she be awarded the custody of the children, $50 a month alimony, $150 counsel fees and costs of suit. Many allegations of cruelty are in the complaint, among them being the statement that the husband has frequently thrown numerous articles of furniture at her.

THAW OBJECTS TO THE RULES

Demands Knife and Fork With Meals, and Quarrels With Caterer.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Because he was not furnished with a knife and fork with the meal sent to him, Harry K. Thaw quarreled with the prison caterer who has been furnishing him food. Thaw's breakfast today consisted of plain prison fare. He ordered his luncheon from a nearby hotel.

The caterer said that Thaw insisted upon having a knife and fork, knowing that it was against the prison rules to furnish them to prisoners charged with capital offenses.

He said that Thaw complained so often to him that he determined to serve him no longer. It is said that when Thaw was first placed in the Tombs, Warden Flynn suggested that the order such food as could be easily eaten without the use of a knife and fork, as no exception would be made in his case.

MOTHER MURDERS HER CHILDREN

CAREFUL PLANS.

The woman had carefully planned to kill herself and children, and knowing that her husband was not to return until a late hour in the night, made all preparations. He arrived home earlier than he told his wife he would, and when he opened the door of the house was staggered by the fumes of the poison.

Divining that something was wrong, the man called to his wife a number of times. Receiving no answer he rushed into the room where the children usually slept. It was in this room that the gas was flowing from the two jets.

SAVED CHILDREN.

Fearing to light a match because of the danger of an explosion, he groped his way to the crib of the two boys, Bert, aged six, and Kella, aged three, and grasped their almost lifeless bodies in his arms.

A second trip into the room revealed the prostrate form of his wife on the couch. He carried the woman into the front yard where he had placed the boys, and immediately summoned medical assistance. Drs. G. P. Reynolds, J. A. Riley and W. B. Stephens answered the call and worked over the lifeless forms of the victims of the deadly gas.

LITTLE HOPE.

The two children have recovered slightly, but are not yet out of danger. The wife's work to save the life of the woman, she shows no sign of returning consciousness, and her life may flicker away at any moment. Dr. Riley, at a late hour today, was still working to save the life of the woman, but little hope is held out for her recovery.

It is believed, judging from the terrible condition of the victims that the woman turned on the gas some time yesterday afternoon.

The husband is unable to give any reason for the desperate act of his wife. He stated that she was in good health and never complained. It is possible that a slight family quarrel was the cause of the woman's attempt on the life of herself and babies.

THEY WILL DIE.

Dr. J. A. Riley stated this afternoon that he was afraid that the woman and children would succumb to the effects of the poison. He said: "None of them have returned to consciousness, and all we have done to bring them to life seems of no avail. The mother seems in a very bad condition, and the two children because of their youth have but little chance. They have been kept alive by injections of strychnine, that is all."

COSTLY RAIN STORM AT JANESVILLE

JANESVILLE, Wis., Aug. 9.—This city was visited last night by a rain-storm that washed out streets and sidewalks in many places, the damage amounting to several thousand dollars. Reports from the country say that much damage was done to crops.

THROWS BABY FROM WINDOW

Woman Becomes Panic Stricken on Burning Street Car.

A defective fuse set fire to a trolley car at Twelfth and Oak streets last night. A wild panic ensued among the passengers. One woman threw her baby through a window to a man standing outside to catch it. Mrs. Mary Petrocelli, residing at 1004 Twenty-first street, was crushed and trampled upon, suffering a fracture of her left leg.

When the car caught fire women screamed and fled from the burning car as fast as they could. Men leaped from every possible exit and in the wild scramble no heed was paid to the safety of women or children. The car was stopped just in front of the Oakland garage, and fire extinguishers were brought from this building and turned on the blazing car. The front part of the platform and the floor were partly burned.

The current flashed from the fuse-box, lighting the woodwork and in a moment the car was blazing. The motorman was compelled to run for safety.

In the crush of people, Mrs. Petrocelli was thrown to the ground. Others were trampled and injured. One woman was crushed and trampled upon, suffering a fracture of her left leg. She was removed to the Receiving Hospital and later taken to her home.

The car was so badly burned that it had to be taken to the shops. But for the fire extinguishers in the garage, the entire car would have burned to the ground.

DID NOT VIOLATE MILK ORDINANCE

The charges of violating the milk ordinance against George Sughara, Taffel, Y. Sato and K. After considerable debate on the subject it was left to the trustees of the town, and they promised to see into the matter at once.

HER BELONGINGS HAVE BEEN RETURNED

No opposition was offered this morning by Mrs. Mattie Delsaver to the search warrant proceedings brought against her by Mrs. Nellie Kallcock of San Francisco, and the property in question was returned to the latter.

Mrs. Delsaver is the landlady of a rooming house at Ninth and Jefferson streets, where about a month ago Charles Phillips attempted to end the life of Mrs. Tessie Schwinski and then killed himself. After the tragedy Mrs. Delsaver held the clothing and effects of Mrs. Schwinski, claiming that her property had been damaged by the blood that was spilled from the bodies of Phillips and his victim. She also alleged that disgrace had been brought on her house by the tragedy. Mrs. Kallcock, the sister of Mrs. Schwinski, then instituted search warrant proceedings in an effort to secure the belongings of her sister, who is now recovering from the effects of her wounds. This morning's proceedings were the result of this action.

LEFT ONE WATCH AND TOOK ANOTHER

A stranger entered the store of W. B. Greenbaum, a jeweler, at 127 Telegraph avenue yesterday afternoon. He left a small Swiss watch to be polished. He promised to return in a few moments for it, but did not put in an appearance. Greenbaum became suspicious and looking about found that the stranger had taken a valuable gold watch.

SUPT. W. A. WHITNEY U. P. R. R. CO.

AND HIS FRIEND, DEPUTY UNITED STATES MARSHAL WINTERS OF HONOLULU, BOTH RECOVER FROM BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

W. A. Whitney of Cheyenne, ex-Superintendent of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, is in town. He called at the office of John J. Fulton, Company and introduced himself and made the following voluntary statement:

Said he, I am a living example of the efficiency of your Renal Compound for Bright's Disease. Last fall I was in such a condition that I had to go to St. John's Hospital in Cheyenne. I was dropped. The albumen was so heavy as to solidify the entire tube and the casts were present in large quantities and of various kinds. The case was decided to be hopeless, and I resigned my position as physician. I resigned my position to go to Honolulu. It was the expectation of all that I would never return. While in Honolulu I met Chief Deputy U. S. Marshal Winters. As soon as he heard what my difficulty was he told me that he had been in a worse fix than I was, and from the same disease. In fact, he said that his condition was so serious that his mind was affected and he could barely drag his feet around when Otis of the Honolulu Drug Company called him one day to tell him that he could recover under Fulton's Compound, as the mates on two different vessels plying between Honolulu ports had taken the Fulton treatment for Bright's Disease and both had recovered. This persuaded Winters and he himself adopted it, with the result that he entirely recovered and was playing golf at the time spoken of. This decided me to adopt the treatment at once upon my return. I have now taken twenty-seven bottles, feel perfectly well and the dropsy has disappeared. The last examination showed only the slightest trace of albumen and one cast, and I am now preparing for business again.

On my return and while on the treatment I visited Bartlett Springs and there met a Mr. Maher of Denver, a mining man. Upon learning my difficulty he too advised Fulton's Compound. It pleased me to tell him I was already on the treatment and getting results. He stated that after traveling all over the world in an attempt to cure his own case of Bright's Disease that he had heard about Fulton's Compound and taken it and fully recovered—the last test showing neither albumen nor casts.

While in San Francisco at the office of the U. P. R. R. Company Mr. Clifford, the agent, introduced me to a friend of his. The subject of my resignation from the superintendency of the U. P. R. R. Company came up, and the cause of it, Mr. Clifford's friend at once took a note book out of his pocket containing a memorandum of the recovery of two of his friends from Bright's Disease under the Fulton Compound. I told him also I was already on the treatment. He was not a little surprised at the list of recoveries that is constantly growing and the number of people who knew about the treatment.

Upon my return to Los Angeles from the islands I met a former switchman of the Santa Fe who knew me through railroad connections. He had Bright's Disease, and knowing of my trouble wanted to know what I was doing for it. I told him, and where to get the Fulton Compound in Los Angeles. Four months later I met him and asked him how he was getting along. He said "All right, I am nearly well and have returned to employment."

Mr. Whitney knew of other cases getting favorable results, and is so gratified at his own recovery that he takes every opportunity to tell people who have either Bright's Disease or Diabetes that they can recover and where the means of recovery can be had.

For Bright's and stubborn Kidney disease get Fulton's Renal Compound. Diabetics will ask for the Diabetic Compound. At all druggists. Send for free booklet to John J. Fulton Co., 5910 San Pablo avenue, Oakland, Cal. Kindly tell your friends.

CHINAMAN WANTED HIS BAIL REDUCED

Because he is old and all his Chinese friends have deserted him in his trouble, Gou Sam Kee, charged with attempting to bribe police officers of this city in order to protect gambling in the local Chinatown, made a plea before Judge Samuels this morning, through his attorney, A. F. Stidgen, for a reduction of bail, which is now $1000. Attorney Stidgen stated that his client had been a respected merchant of Fresno for forty years and that he was now over 70 years of age. Judge Samuels told Attorney Stidgen that he thought the prisoner was old enough to know better than to attempt to bribe members of the police force and he denied the motion.

CHINESE BOY IS REPORTED MISSING

Low Hing Jr., the son of Low Hing, a local Chinese merchant, is among the missing. His father has asked the police to search for the absent one. Low Hing lives at 215 Eighth street. Henry Kleeman, a German, aged sixty-seven years, is also reported as missing by his relatives. Kleeman is a cabinet maker by trade.

FATHER M'SWEENEY SERIOUSLY ILL

Rev. Father Thomas McSweeney, pastor of St. Frances de Sales Church, is very ill at his home, 580 Hobart street. Father McSweeney was taken suddenly ill at his home on Monday last. Crowley, has forbidden anyone but the nurse to enter his room.

FREIGHT CONGESTION SOON IS TO BE BROKEN

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9.—There are prospects for a solution of the freight tie up, although the situation is still bad. The increased demurrage on hay has had good effect, and it has been decided by the officials of the Southern Pacific to repeat the measure in regard to some of the other goods that the consignees are refusing to take from the cars. Of all the various plans that have been suggested, the raising of the demurrage has had the most salutary effect. The officials think that if they can follow the campaign on the lines laid down in dealing with hay shipments, the victory will be won in the course of a few weeks, and most of the freight that has been blocking the tracks will be unloaded.

SPECIAL DAYS AT THE CALIFORNIA STATE FAIR.

Every effort possible is being made by the committee in charge of the State Fair, to be held at Sacramento from August 24th to September 1st, to make the affair a success. A feature of the program arranged will be the setting aside of special days for all sections of the State. As this is the first fair since the disaster, a special effort will be made to show that California products are just as good now as they were last year, and even better.

Special days have been arranged as follows: August 25th, Sacramento valley and tributary counties and north coast counties day; August 27th, Los Angeles and the counties of southern California, August 28th, San Jose and central coast counties. August 29th, Stockton, Fresno and San Joaquin valley; August 30th, State of California and Governor's day. August 31st, San Francisco, Oakland and bay counties.

J. A. Fisher, the secretary, who has charge of the most of the work, expects this year's to be one of the largest and most interesting fairs ever made in the State.

Not a Practicable Suggestion.

In another column will be found a communication suggesting that the money necessary to complete the school houses damaged by earthquake be raised by special tax instead of by issuing bonds. We wish the writer, who is a business man and a good citizen, had signed his name instead of appending "parent and taxpayer"—which he is—to his suggestion. It is a good thing to have citizens come out in the open in discussing matters of such vital and immediate concern to the public as issuing bonds and providing suitable facilities for the school children.

Our correspondent admits that the school buildings must be completed, an imperative necessity he calls it, but instead of issuing bonds payable in forty annual installments, he proposes to levy a special tax for three years to raise the money. Only a small minority of taxpayers would favor this proposition, which, if adopted, would delay the completion of the schools for three years. The school houses should be completed at once. We need them now, and need them worse than school houses were ever needed before in Oakland. At the present time not less than 10,000 school children in this city are without decent school room accommodations.

But there is no reason or justice in asking the taxpayers to pay at once for the erection of school houses that will be in use two generations hence. Why should those who come after us not pay for a portion of the benefits they enjoy? Why should the present generation pay for the school accommodations of posterity? Posterity is a poor stick if it cannot pay its own debts. Besides, all experience has demonstrated that the burden of making public improvements is lightened vastly by distributing the cost over a long series of years. Then the increased values created by the improvements will bear a proper proportion of the cost.

The point in this whole matter is that the school houses must be completed at the earliest practicable moment. That is what we have to consider, and we should not tangle it up with any other proposition. Criticism of the curriculum of the high school and teaching methods in vogue is entirely out of place in this connection. It is merely confusing and misleading to suggest unpopular and impotent propositions or to attack the system of pedagogy prevailing in the department. The only sensible thing to do is vote the bonds and finish the school houses.

Recklessness on the part of motor car drivers appears to be increasing instead of diminishing, and a contemptuous disregard of the rights and safety of horse drivers and pedestrians is displayed so openly and frequently that public opinion is growing deeply incensed. Many autoists have no respect for either law or decency, and commit acts of wanton brutality, such as frightening women and old men and running down dogs and chickens, merely for pastime. These amiable ruffians refer to everybody encountered driving or walking along the country roads as "jays," and find great enjoyment in recounting, with oaths and filthy adjectives, how they made the "old ——— jump," or how some woman was "scared into cack fits." If this blackguardly behavior continues, some infuriated person will be goaded into shooting into offending auto parties. That would be bad indeed, but desperate diseases sometimes call for desperate remedies.

The brush with Japanese seal poachers on St. Paul Island has provoked a characteristic eruption from the ridiculous Hobson, who wants to spend two or three billions on a navy. The absurd Hobson is sure the United States must fight Japan in the near future. He cannot imagine the Chinese and Japanese mean anything but war with this country when they create naval establishments. Immediately after the Spanish War the Hobson coat-tails had to be held by the whole country to prevent the hero of the Merrimac plunging into war with Germany. In America the Hobson antics are laughed at as assinine, but, unfortunately, foreigners do not always understand and hence take the Hobson vamping as an expression of American sentiment. This misunderstanding produces hostility and suspicion where they should not exist.

Mahon, Johnson, or whatever his real name was, appears to have richly deserved his fate. He not only made a practice of deceiving and betraying foolish women, but boasted of his conquests, and even swindled his victims. He died as the fool dleth, and deserves neither compassion nor apology.

Mr. Bryan has notified Roger Sullivan, of Illinois, to get off the earth, but he has as yet filed no objection to Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany boss, being a member of the committee to welcome him to New York. Mr. Sullivan is not as potent a factor in politics as Mr. Murphy.

WHY OAKLAND SHOULD BE PROUD.

An Oakland exchange states that it will require a great deal more money to run the school department of that city this year than formerly. This is a fact of which Oakland people should be proud, for in addition to the gain which it shows in population, it is an investment which will come back to the city and State a hundred fold. Every dollar invested in the education of a boy or girl creates a reserve fund from which the people can draw in the future in an ample measure in brains, intelligence, character and manhood. The welfare and success of this nation depend on the public schools.—Grass Valley Tidings.

SUPPRESSING CRIME BY ENCOURAGING IT.

What is the difference between taking a bribe to commit a crime by concealing a crime to catch the criminal, as in the case of these Chinese gamblers, and contracting with a burglar to give him protection in the prosecution of his business, and then betray his confidence and annul the contract by standing on the outside of the house he is robbing only to arrest him as he emerges on the charge of burglary? When a law officer considers it his privilege to commit a crime to get evidence to prosecute a criminal, it is high time that the officer and the criminal were chained together, and together marched to jail.—Berkeley Gazette.

King Haakon has just been appointed an admiral in the German navy. This is a bright young man—he has got two good jobs since graduation day.—Buffalo Express.

Useless Apprehensions.

An esteemed contemporary sounds a note of alarm. The National Irrigation Congress is about to assemble at Boise, Idaho, and if left to its own devices may precipitate a financial and industrial crisis. Our contemporary thinks, or declares, that it is the intention of the approaching congress to pass a resolution declaring in favor of the diversion of money from the National Irrigation funds to the reclamation of swamp lands in Mississippi and Louisiana, whereupon it advises a strong delegation from California to prevent this robbery of the public treasury for private use.

It is just this kind of insane alarm that confers upon the National Irrigation Congress a new lease of life with each recurring session. The attendance is drummed and marshalled, not with a view to the good the congress may accomplish, but to prevent the mischief of which it is supposedly capable.

The National Irrigation Congress is absolutely without influence. It was organized for the education of the public and to promote the growth of sentiment in favor of irrigation for the arid States of the West. When the National Reclamation Law was passed, the function of the congress ceased. It lives, however, by virtue of the insane reasoning pursued by our contemporary. It has in view only the interests of the passenger earnings of the railroads when it asks that a strong delegation, numerically and intellectually, be sent to this congress; not for the promotion of any affirmative policy, but for the prevention of the passage of mischief making, busybody resolutions. A body so thoroughly impeached, so completely distrusted as the National Irrigation Congress will reach the point of well deserved extinction at an early period, if it is simply let alone. It possesses no influence whatever with the Congress of the United States. In fact, any recommendation it would make is completely forestalled by the popular distrust to which the National Irrigation Congress has fallen heir. Our contemporary merely proclaims this distrust by recommending that a strong delegation be sent to this congress, not to confirm its purposes, but simply to prevent its mischief.

DIRECT TAX VS. LONG DEBT—THE SCHOOL BONDS.

Editor TRIBUNE:—I realize that it is scarcely safe or allowable for any one, not a school director, or an employee of the school department, to dare to suggest anything in relation to school matters, under the penalty of being called an enemy of the public schools system. Now the writer has three children attending our schools, and pays taxes on about $20,000 worth of property, and so has a little interest in our schools. The schools must be fixed up. That is imperative, but instead of issuing bonds and saddling a heavy debt, bearing interest, I believe that it would be better, now at this time, when every one is busy, money plenty, taxpayers able to pay, that a direct tax be levied, for say $100,000 each year for three years to come. Pay for the work now. Our school board had the District Attorney decide the matter of the sale of the bonds the way they wanted it done, so almost any legal question can generally be decided the way it is wanted, so I believe it could be decided that a special tax could be decided as legal in order to raise additional money for the schools. To bind the taxpayers to pay for bonds, year in and year out, in dull times as well as in good times, in times of famine, and in times of plenty, is not right, just or good policy.

It is always better to pay cash than to go in debt. And it will be found that most of the advocates of debt are those that do not pay cash. Another matter is that money could be saved by running our high school as a high school and not as it is now run and managed as a college. Take the small percentage of public school children that go into the high school from the grammar schools. Then take the small percentage that go to the university, and it is a fact that the expense of running our high schools is getting too top-heavy. The nervous wrecks that are turned out, the children forced to give up on account of the cramming system, all show that too much money is spent on special instruction, at the expense of the more practical lines, that go to make strong practical common sense men and women fitted for life's battle.

Miss Josephine Lund, the bride's only attendant, wore a dainty gown of blue and carried enchanting carnations.

Rev. Miles B. Fisher was the officiating clergyman. Frank Shields attended the groom.

The bride is a charming girl, with many friends here, while Mr. Talbot is also popular, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Talbot, of San Francisco.

WE SELL FINE PIANOS

Because when you call at our store we are not afraid to show you a fine article for a reasonable price. When you know the real value of a high grade piano you will purchase no other. We would rather give you a little more time in which to pay for a good piano, or give you a closer price, than to sell you a cheap, unreliable instrument. Music is a refining influence in the home when produced by a fine instrument, but if it is not it would drive the most devoted member of the family from home, and your children, whom you want to be musicians, will only tire of the piano and you will never awake the interest in them again.

We believe in high grade goods, although if you must buy a cheap new or second hand piano, we always have them for prices as low as any house in America, but do not make a specialty of them. Some beautiful Knabe, Ludwig, Packard, Price & Teeple and Smith & Barnes pianos have just arrived. Call and look them over and see if you don't agree with us. Only a pleasure to show them, even if you are not ready to purchase. We want to meet you.

WANT PAGE TO ENTERTAIN THE LADIES

Now that Harry Borchert, steward at the receiving hospital, has returned from his fishing trip, the mind of Warden James Page of the same institution has turned to mouth-watering scenes and restful moments. He was wondering how he was going to word an application for a brief vacation when he received the following communication from friends at springs in Sonoma county, which is addressed to the supervisors:

"Board of Supervisors, Alameda County—Gentlemen: We the undersigned take the liberty of petitioning you to let James M. Page make us a short visit. We need him in our business to act as umpire on our croquet grounds, and on general principles we need him—especially as a social companion to our ladies. In fact, we need him to add tone to the place, instruct us in the proper way to cook our venison, and reform our table manners. Yours truly,

Page has not shown the communication to his wife, owing to the reference to the ladies, but the supervisors may see it in the near future.

Parke Wilson had young Tyson in the points at Idora Park yesterday and the new boy won his second victory over Los Angeles. Six hits measured the extent of the damage they inflicted upon Tyson. By some comedy baseball in the sixth the Angels were permitted to get a lone- some run.

The mighty Cravath hit the ball to the fence close to the score board, but so quick was the Spencer-Hudbrand relay throw that Cravath was on third only to die at the plate after Ellis had struck out and McClelland had hit a weakling to Tyson. Mangelnera perished at first after Wheeler had flogged his roller. The score:

SANTA CLARA HAS WORTHY RECRUIT

CARL DROSSNER,
The Young Athlete, Who Has Decided to Cast His Lot With Santa Clara College.

The students at Santa Clara College are delighted to hear that young Carl Drossner, the famous all-round athlete, who has made a splendid reputation at Belmont school, intends to join the college at Santa Clara and participate in the various sports in which the college teams compete with surrounding organizations.

Young Drossner holds the amateur championship in several different lines of sport, and no doubt would prove a tower of strength to the Santa Clara boys, especially on the football team, where he shines with particular brilliance.

Drossner is now in Oakland, and has announced to friends his intention to pursue his studies at Santa Clara.

BRITT IS TO GO ON WITH HANLON

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9.—The Goldfield fight will not be the only great glove encounter to be settled early in September. Unless something unforeseen happens, Jimmy Britt and Eddie Hanlon will settle their long standing dispute on September 10, either in this city or in Colma. Manager Jim Coffroth has the consent of both the fighters, but Willis Britt has not yet made up his mind. However, he will probably give his brotherly consent, and then the articles will be signed.

For many days past Hanlon has been giving Coffroth the office to match him with Britt. These signals looked good to the noted promoter and he responded to them. In the meantime the town began to talk about the possibility of such an encounter. The boosting kids were busy in bunches and the more they boosted the stronger it went with Coffroth.

All the magnates wanted was the consent of the Britts. A few days ago Jimmy extended an invitation to the promoter to partake of his quiet hospitality over in Marin county for a spell. This appealed to the magnate and he accepted.

CONVINCES BRITT.
He managed to combine business with pleasure and was soon settling the Hanlon bee buzzing around in that Broadway bonnet James E. appears on the line with. The more Coffroth talked the more Britt was convinced, and when the promoter left the suburban retreat a day or two ago he had the pledge of Jimmy to give Hanlon a whirl.

Hanlon is ready. More than that, he is delighted. He has selected training quarters at Larcspur. He will start to work at once. He figures he needs some time in which to get ready for the fray.

"Graney and Levy have spent six months trying to make a match and have failed," said Coffroth yesterday. "Britt and myself, representing fifty per cent of the trust, will have a match all signed up within twenty-four hours."

Frightfully Burned.
Charles W. Moore, a machinist of Ford City, Pa., had his hand frightfully burned in an electrical furnace. He applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve with the usual result: "A quick and perfect cure." ## BEAVERS WIN ON WITH HANLON

PUG'S BROTHER WEDS PUG'S SISTER

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9.—A wedding of unusual interest was celebrated at Tai's cafe, corner of Van Ness avenue and Eddy streets, yesterday at the noon hour, the principals in the romantic affair being Miss Ethel Berger and Herbert Choyanski. The fair bride is a sister of Sam Berger, and the bridegroom is an attorney of this city and a brother of the famous Joe Choyanski.

An apartment on the second floor was reserved for the ceremony and the elaborate breakfast which succeeded it. The decorations were appropriate. A merry party drank to the health and happiness of the pair. James W. Coffroth was groomsmen, and the bride was attended by Miss Edith Murdoch. Judge J. C. B. Hubbard performed the ceremony.

Among the guests present at the wedding and the breakfast were Judge Hubbard, Mrs. Harriet Choyanski, Edwin W. Choyanski, Nat Berger, Maurice Berger, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miner and Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Choyanski of Pittsburg.

The honeymoon tour began in a motor car at the cafe door. The bride was attired for the journey in a natty tailor-made costume of dark gray cloth. Monterey and Del Monte were first on the itinerary. Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Choyanski accompanying the couple that far. After a month or perhaps six weeks of motoring, stopping at Santa Barbara, San Diego and possibly including several points in Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Choyanski will make their home in this vicinity.

BILLY NOLAN DISCUSSES FIGHT

GOLDFIELD, Aug. 9.—Billy Nolan arrived last evening with President Rickard of the athletic club and was given a hearty reception. He met a number of the fight promoters.

Nolan says Nelson is in the pink of condition and will arrive on Saturday, having been detained in Salt Lake by his theatrical engagement. He expressed himself as willing to make favorable terms with Gans and gives assurance that there will be no hitch in the arrangements.

"I would be perfectly willing," said Nolan, "to have Siler referee the fight or any of a half dozen others. I am willing to name seven or eight prominent men in the business and let Gans take his pick. We will meet tomorrow and I do not anticipate the least difficulty in reaching an agreement on terms satisfactory to all concerned. I shall require, of course, that the man selected be of recognized prominence as a referee. I cannot say where Nelson will train. I wish to look over the ground before deciding on such an important point."

GANS' QUARTERS.
Gans has settled upon training quarters at the Merchant's Hotel, Columbia, about a mile from here. The colored boxer is enthusiastic over Goldfield after a day of observation. He suggests building a regular amphitheater, and there is little doubt but that the suggestion will be adopted.

A large, permanent arena built if the fight proves the success expected. In Goldfield and the surrounding camps are 30,000 men earning $5 a day. Each man would rather go hungry a week than miss a good fight.

FIRST BET RECORDED.
RENO, Nev., Aug. 9.—The first large bet on the fight was made in Reno yesterday. J. D. Moore, a mining man of Goldfield, placed $5000 even money on Gans. J. Bowes, a Reno gambler, taking the Nelson end.

NELSON STARTS FOR NEVADA.
SALT LAKE, Aug. 9.—Battling Nelson bid goodby to his Salt Lake friends last night and departed for Reno, where he goes to begin training for his coming encounter with Joe Gans.

GRANEY RETURNS.
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9.—Eddie Graneley returned last night in a sad and sorrowful mood. He failed in the mission to induce Billy Nolan to choose San Francisco instead of Goldfield as the battleground for the great Gans-Nelson affair. "The blacksmith takes his reverse calmly and says he hopes the Goldfield people will make a million dollars out of the match. He bears them no malice."

"I surely went on a chase that could do no good," said the blacksmith. "I guess Nolan had made up his mind before I dropped in upon him. That Goldfield proposition hit him just right and he took it."

He did the best I could to get the match here. I showed Nolan where he could draw a bigger house here, and I also talked picture privileges with him, but nothing doing. He was for Goldfield and there was no chance for any one to get that idea out of his head."

PUT BONES OF SYSONBY IN MUSEUM

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Typifying the highest development of the race horse, the bones of the great thoroughbred Sysonby will be mounted and will occupy a niche in the American Museum of Natural History. It will be the first time the bones of a horse have been mounted there, and it has been announced that it will be the last.

James R. Keene's racer won during his brief turf career $178,190. In the Futurity of 1904 Sysonby met his only defeat, and then he finished third in Artful and Tradition.

It is the regret of Mr. Keene that there is not one of the get of the famous race horse to perpetuate his memory on the turf.

FIRST DEFEAT IS HEART-BREAKING

(BY OTTO FLOT)
I read quite an interesting article in an eastern exchange, the other day, how the fighters deteriorate after their first crushing defeat. In this article the writer calls attention to the future of Philadelphia Jack O'Brien and wonders whether he will be the same O'Brien after his meeting with Sam Berger.

And pray, why not? O'Brien had as good as an even break with Berger, according to all accounts, and that little setback should not be enough to break his heart. Why, he was knocked out by Young Peter Jackson in San Francisco about nine years ago and he came back better and stronger than ever. I honestly believe that there is many a good fighter still left in the Quaker. If he were going to let a little thing like that put him out of the running he would have been a dead one after Tommy Ryan hung that clip to the jaw when McCoy threw the towel up. But he recovered, went out to the coast and trimmed up so good a man as Kaufmann.

KNOCKOUT'S RESULTS.
After a fighter has once received the knockout, however, his days as a champion are numbered. There is no argument to it, and then, too, a fighter can have his heart broken by bad decisions of the referee. There is no better illustration of this fact than our own Young Corbett.

After Corbett defeated McGovern for the second time on the coast he was without doubt the best man of his weight and he had the confidence of the public, which is seventy-five per cent of the battle, and he had that wonderful punch in either hand. For, had he not cleaned up all the good men of his class?

Then came the match with Britt. Corbett believed firmly that he was the master of the San Francisco champion. The same night he defeated McGovern, Corbett and myself went to the Oyster Loaf restaurant about midnight and had a talk about his proposed match with Britt. I said to him:

"Kid, ain't this fellow too big and strong for you?"
"Not a bit," replied the champion promptly. "Of all the men in the world that I do know of, he is the best, and I am not going to let anyone talk me out of the match."

"Very well," I answered, "you are doing the fighting and you have probably got a right to select your opponents." Well, the match was arranged and fought on Saturday night, and Eddie Graneley gave the decision to Britt. I have talked with many impartial fight experts on the coast regarding the match, and while none of them claim that Corbett beat Britt, they all say that Britt did not beat Corbett and that the Denver boy should have had a draw at the very worst.

NEVER THE SAME.
That is the verdict that broke the Denver boy's heart, and he never afterwards was the same fighter. Then came his match with Nelson, and how I begged him to pass up the fighting. Dana, I walked to the door with him and Harry Tuttle when he left for San Francisco, and in shaking hands with him my last words were: "You have picked the toughest one in the bunch for yourself."

He laughed, jumped on the platform and replied: "He never had a Young Corbett punching him as you and I have done. He is a tough one when he does."

Well, I sat at the ringside with Barney Oldfield in that fight. We talked it over and Oldfield will bear out the following conversation. After he had asked my honest opinion, he replied:

"Barney, you know I am with the little fellow because I know him and like him and would be willing to lose my money to see him win. But he is a tough one, and I am going to be honest with you. I don't think he has got a chance. I am on that say so Oldfield went out and bet on Nelson."

That ended Young Corbett as a fighter and Hanlon and Hyland and Herrera, the "Three Terrible H's," proved his undoing. He will never be himself again no matter how much he would like to be. He is a good fighter, but he is a perfect wonder when he fought Lavigne and Ernie on the coast. He could punch hard enough to knock a man out and he was quick lightning on his feet. Then came two or three questionable decisions and then the knockout by Nelson. Friends of mine who saw him in the east against McGovern a short time ago assert that James Edward was no longer the pugilistic marvel he once was.

DIXON'S CASE.
Look at little George Dixon after McGovern gave him that trimming and note how easily he was defeated after that by nearly every good man he met, and yet I remember the time that Dixon could beat a dozen just such fellows as would knock him out now, and do it all in a single night.

Old John L.'s heart was broken when Corbett put him in his needs. Then came his first round in New Orleans. I can just picture him now as he slowly rose, held on to the ropes and said: "I am glad to see you, America, that is all I want. John never entered the ring again."

At Richmond, in that broiling sun, Jake Kilgore put all his needs on George, and he afterwards was nothing more than a has-been. But Jake was cunning enough to catch the ring and go into business in Baltimore.

George Gardner gave great promise for a time, but after he laced by old Fitzsimmons in San Francisco, George was anything but a top-notch or one to be feared.

After Key said farewell after Jeff knocked him to a jelly, and Fitz finished the job by knocking him out, and Fitz himself is all in, for he never got over the two defeats he suffered at the hands of Jeffries. I might go down the line in this manner for hours. Suffice it to illustrate the fact that a fighter who has been knocked out is never the same fighter as he was before. It shows that once a man is thoroughly defeated he never regains his old time form.

The decidedly exciting and extreme novel spectacle of two members of the fair sex competing in a desperate struggle for honors in a roller skating race is what the spectators at the Lakeside rink are to be treated to tonight.

The event is to be a mile race between Miss Edna Rees and Miss Louise Jones, both of this city, for the women's championship of the Pacific Coast. Both are confident that they can prove victorious in the contest and the affair therefore should provide some interesting sport.

Miss Jones now claims the title of champion of the coast by virtue of a victory in a recent race in which several female folk were entered, including one or two from outside towns. Miss Jones has shown herself to be extremely fast on rollers, and declares that she will easily be able to uphold her reputation tonight. Miss Rees was not in the race in which Miss Jones won her recent laurels and declares there will be a different tale to tell after tonight. As to the spectators, they "can tell by finding out." The race begins at 9:30 o'clock.

OAKS LOSE A PITCHERS' BATTLE

SEATTLE, Aug. 9.—Rube Vickers and Bill Reidy engaged in a hot pitchers' battle here yesterday afternoon. Seattle winning, 1 to 0. Both twisters were in fine form, Vickers depending on terrific speed and Reidy on head work and his fine control of a good, slow ball.

The only run of the game was made in the first inning. With two men out Blankenship reached first on an error, stole second and scored on Householder's two-bagger. Bliss opened the ninth with a two-base hit against the fence, and Vickers hit Devereaux on the head, knocking him out. The next three men could do nothing, however, and the game ended 1 to 0. Steps Taken at Enthusiastic
Meeting of Metcalf Club Held Last Night.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Forty-eighth assembly district "Metcalf" club was held last night at Judge Quinn's courtroom, Eighth and Broadway. The following officers were elected for the ensuing three years: Daniel Doody, president; Joseph McCall, vice-president; R. J. Callaghan, secretary; R. Row, treasurer.

The following executive committee was duly elected. W. J. Baccus, chairman; Philip M. Walsh, Mat Riley, Maurice T. Doody, J. P. Rohrbach, Joseph McCall, R. J. Callaghan.

The club was first organized at the time that Victor Metcalf was first a candidate for congress, and has been a potent factor both in national and county politics.

On motion of R. J. Callaghan and William Hartman, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, George C. Pardee has proven himself an able executive at the head of affairs in California and has endeavored himself to the citizens by his fair minded and impartial administration of the affairs of this commonwealth; therefore be it

Resolved, that the Republicans of the Forty-eighth District represented in this club pledge their hearty and energetic support and co-operation in his candidacy for Governor of California.

Whereas, Joseph R. Knowland, as a Representative in Congress from the Third Congressional District has fulfilled the duties of his office in a manner highly satisfactory to the voters of this district and the State in general; therefore be it Resolved, that we the voters and constituents of Congressman Knowland pledge him our active and enthusiastic support.

Whereas, Frank Barnett, M. J. Kelly, Joseph M. Kelly and H. T. Hempstead are now occupying the offices of sheriff, treasurer, supervisor and constable, respectively, and have given satisfaction in the administration of their respective offices; and

Whereas said officials are residents of the Forty-eighth Assembly District and personally known to the Republicans now assembled in this meeting for their worth and fitness, therefore

Resolved, that each of said officials mentioned are endorsed by this club and recommended to the citizens of Alameda county for nomination and reelection.

The following candidates addressed the meeting: M. J. Kelly, candidate for treasurer; Frank Barnett, candidate for sheriff; Joseph M. Kelly, candidate for supervisor.

Remarks were made by the following prominent Republicans: William Hartman, Miles Doody, Joseph McCall, Eugene Lynch and many others.

The executive committee was instructed to secure a large hall for future meetings, as the hall proved too small to accommodate the members. The president announced that the Hon. Joseph R. Knowland would deliver an address at the next meeting.

MORE BLACKS
Population of the Isthmian Canal
Zone Given at Twenty-Two Thousand.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—According to a census just taken by the health department of the Isthmian canal zone the population of the zone is 22,137. As the inhabitants of the zone are constantly moving it was impossible to enumerate all of them, and it is estimated that the number missed is probably 6000, bringing the total up to 27,137. In addition to this, the officials point out there should be a liberal allowance, probably ten per cent, made for persons who live just outside the zone, but are employees of the commission and to all purposes are residents of the strip controlled by the United States. This allowance would bring the total up to almost 30,000.

The census showed the population of the city of Panama was 22,347. A census taken October 31, 1905, showed a population of 20,383. Of the adults in the city of Panama reached by enumerators in the last census, 754 were men as against 6410 women. Of the minors, 4016 were males and 5072 females. In the city of Panama 15,111 of the inhabitants are natives of the Panama Republic. Among other nationalities in that city, Jamaica ranks second, with 1877; Spain has 1140; West India, except Jamaica and Porto Rico, 1250; United States, 361; Colombia, 889, China, 703; Italy 245.

Blacks outnumber the whites in all the settlements on the canal zone. At Culebra there are 677 whites, 3699 blacks, and 158 yellow persons, giving the town a population of 4801, and showing it to be far the largest town on the zone. The census of Colon and Cristobal showed the actual population of the two cities to be 12,775. The census taken in April of this year shows that the total number of white Americans on the entire isthmus of Panama was 3264.

According to the latest census, the entire population of the canal zone and of the cities of Panama, Colon and Cristobal, which are at the ends of the canal, are a part of the canal zone to all purposes, although they are under the Panama government, is 57,458.

KANSAS CITY WINS FIGHT

Mayor Beardsley Has Promised to Sign the Natural Gas Ordinance.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 9.—Kansas City won its long fight for cheap gas when Mayor Beardsley today promised to sign the so-called Fleming-Wilson natural gas ordinance, granting a franchise to a syndicate of Chicago capitalists and passed by the city council last night.

The franchise is to run for thirty years and it provides that as long as the supply of natural gas is reasonably accessible it is to be furnished at twenty-five cents a thousand cubic feet for domestic consumption and at ten cents for manufacturing purposes.

If the natural gas supply fails then an artificial gas is to be furnished at seventy-five cents a thousand cubic feet. The city may purchase the gas works at any time, providing the grantees receive their profits for ten years.

The Kansas City (Missouri) gas company now holds a franchise to furnish gas at a dollar and ten cents per thousand feet.

FIVE SENATORS DISCUSS CRAFT

Are Appointed to Inquire Into Affairs of Civilized Indian Tribes.

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 9.—Five United States Senators, William A. Clark of Montana, Chester S. Long of Kansas, Frank B. Brandegee of Connecticut, C. D. Clark of Wyoming, and Henry M. Teller of Colorado held a meeting at the Brown Palace hotel in this city last night.

The Senators were appointed a committee to provide for the final disposition of the affairs of the Five Civilized Indian tribes in Indian Territory.

Preliminary plans for the work of the committee were discussed. Among the questions which will be inquired into are graft, particularly in the sale and transfer of Indian lands, and the proposition for the disposal of the coal and asphalt land which belongs to the Indians.

This morning arrangements will be made for a trip to Indian Territory and it is understood the investigation there will last from a month to six weeks.

ODD FELLOWS' BALL AT IRVINGTON

The grand benefit ball to be given by Mission Peak Lodge, No. 114, I. O. O. F. in Maple hall, Irvington, tomorrow night, is attracting uncommon attention in this city and vicinity and will be attended by a number of people from this city.

Mission Peak lodge suffered a great loss by the late earthquake, in having its large brick building badly damaged, necessitating repairs which will cost hundreds of dollars.

There is room in Maple hall for 500 couples to dance at one time.

Brohaska's orchestra of San Jose will furnish the music for the occasion.

This ball will at the same time celebrate the opening of Maple hall, the use of which has kindly been donated by O. N. Hirsch & Co., the owners.

GRAIN MEN ACCUSED OF SUBSTITUTION

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 9.—J. W. Radford, state grain inspector, who has just returned from Mexico, and who has made investigations, has made assertions that he found several Kansas grain dealers substituted inferior grades of wheat after the state grain inspection department had inspected and given grades on the grain in cars.

As the Kansas law stands now, there is no penalty provided for such an offense.

TUGBOAT MEN OUT ON STRIKE

Railroad Fleet Badly Tied Up in the New York Harbor.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—A strike of several hundred men on dock hands, rollers and firemen on railroad tugboats in this harbor badly tied up the railroad tugboat fleet today. This in turn prevented the movement of a large amount of freight from the railroad terminals in Jersey City to this city. Nearly all the railroads maintaining fleets and tugs and lighters were affected by the strike, including the ferries of the Baltimore & Ohio and the New York Central. Sixty men employed on the docks of the Erie railroad in Jersey City struck in sympathy with the tugboat men. The men have been receiving $55 a month and demand an increase of $5 a month.

Should the strike be prolonged it is expected that hundreds of carloads of food supplies for this city will be tied up.

PARDEE WINS OUT IN THE SOUTH

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Aug. 8.—The activity of State Surveyor Victor H. Woods, Assemblyman Warren M. John and Assembly Clerk R. L. Dempsey has assured Governor George Pardee of the Republican support of this county in the State convention. At the meeting of the Republican county central committee last evening an effort to have the delegates appointed by the committee and instructed to vote for Warren R. Porter was voted down mainly through their objection, and it was decided to have the county convention name the delegates. There is no doubt this insures the county for Pardee. The convention will be held at El Pismo August 24.

The following were appointed delegates to the Congressional convention: George K. Truesdale, L. V. Thorndike, J. E. Lewis, Robertino Rightie, Easton Mills, Warren M. John, L. F. Sinheimer, F. V. Vetteine and John Whichee.

EMIL LEHNHARDT
SUFFERS EYE STRAIN

Emil Lehnhardt has been confined to his home at 1102 Telegraph avenue for the past two weeks with paralysis of the eyelids. Dr. W. S. Porter, who is attending him, states that the paralysis is caused by an eye strain during Mr. Lehnhardt's trip to the Yosemite valley.

Mr. Lehnhardt has been staying at his place of business eighteen hours a day of late, and the doctor states that it is a plain case of nerve exhaustion. Mr. Lehnhardt is not at all alarmed about it, as within a few days the eye will probably be in its usual good condition.

A perusal of their large ad in this issue will convince all those seeking footwear for the family that a trip to De Lancey & Espejo & Co.'s is worth the time.
